LICENSURE FOR APPRAISER TRAINEE

The Appraiser Trainee Classification was added in Pennsylvania, effective October 2010.

The Education Requirements for the Appraiser Trainee are to complete 75 hours in the following three classes:

- Basic Appraisal Principles (30 hours)
- Basic Appraisal Procedures (30 Hours)
- The 15-Hour National USPAP Course (15 Hours)

An Appraiser Trainee license may be active for a maximum of 4 renewal periods (8 years). After this time, the trainee must have completed all additional requirements for the Certified Residential or Certified General license.

In addition, an appraiser trainee must be supervised by a certified residential or certified general appraiser.

Continuing Education is required while holding a Trainee License.

ABOUT SCHLICHER-KRATZ INSTITUTE

Schlicher-Kratz Institute has been approved by the Pennsylvania State Appraisal Board, since its inception in 1995, to provide instruction in appraisal courses. We have provided appraisal instruction to hundreds of successful appraisal students for over 30 years.

Our teachers are all appraisal professionals who have the educational and experiential backgrounds to help you understand the appraising profession and help you prepare for your new career as well as the state exam. Our National USPAP instructors are certified by the Appraiser Qualifications Board.
